

New Horizons Caregivers Group "We Care and We Give"

July is Independence For Hunger Month at Grocery Outlet

HLPUSD had there annual cereal drive in April this year and brought in 734 boxes of cereal for the low-income families to receive over the summer months. Awesome job to all HLPUSD is out on summer vacation New Horizons opens it's doors to all HLPUSD low-income families with children to come to our location for assistance during the Summer months. We began our first distribution in June 12th. Our next distribution will be July 11 and Aug. 15th.

New Horizons is partnering with Grocery Outlet again this year for the month of July Independence from Hunger food drive all donations go directly to low-income families of Hacienda Heights and La Puente. This is a great way to support your local community.

New Horizons is partnering with Equity & Access, DKG and Hot Topic this year to provide backpacks to K-8th grade at Val-the schools that participated.
